

Frog on a Log

Focus: Blends: fr, gr, fl, pl, sp, st

Fred the frog sat on a log. He was feeling glum.

"I want a friend," said Fred. "But I am stuck on this log."

Just then, a dragonfly flew by. Flip, flap, flip!

"Hello!" said the dragonfly. "My name is Stan. Why do you look so glum?"

"I am stuck," said Fred. "I can not find a friend."

"I will be your friend!" said Stan. "We can play together!"

Fred was so glad. He did a big jump—splash!—right into the pond.

"Come swim with me!" called Fred.

And that is how Fred the frog and Stan the dragonfly became the best of friends.

Words in This Story:

frog • Fred • flew • flip • flap • glum • glad • Stan • stuck • splash • swim
• play • dragonfly

Comprehension: Frog on a Log

Circle the correct answer:

1. What is Fred?

- ☐ A. A frog
- ☐ B. A fly
- ☐ C. A fish

2. Why was Fred feeling glum?

- ☐ A. He wanted a friend
- ☐ B. He was hungry
- ☐ C. He was cold

3. What is Stan?

- ☐ A. A dragonfly
- ☐ B. A frog
- ☐ C. A bird

4. What did Fred do when he was glad?

- ☐ A. Jumped into the pond
- ☐ B. Flew away
- ☐ C. Sat on the log

Put the story in order (write 1, 2, 3, 4):

- ___ Stan the dragonfly flies by.
- ___ Fred jumps into the pond—splash!
- ___ Fred sits on a log feeling glum.
- ___ Stan offers to be Fred's friend.

Draw your favorite part of the story:

